

Independence Day 2020

Not going to avoid the elephant in the room... there's some crazy stuff going on out there these days. However, one thing remains the same: we have a lot to be thankful for and are still blessed to live in America.

Of the 330 million people living here, I believe the majority are good hearted people (they don't make the news -- only those on the extremes get the attention).

I hope you can pause to celebrate July 4th this weekend. Thank you to all the courageous men and women who serve and protect our country, and the first responders who've had one heck of a year so far!
