Hello ,

In the past two weeks, I made 4 different salaried job offers with full benefits packages to 4 different mothers, one of which who's been out of the work force for many years. All 4 women excitedly accepted the jobs and only 1 of the 4 is coming from a salaried position with benefits.ts.

It's a significant financial raise for each of them. I share this because Sunday was Mother's Day and a recent conversation with my friend Paula Faris has been on my mind a lot.

If you don't know Paula or her work yet, you should! She's famous for her tenure as co-anchor of Good Morning America Weekend and as co-host of The View. Her most recent book "You Don't Have to Carry it All" gets behind her mission of supporting mothers in the workplace!

Anyway, back to the story— I'm so excited to empower these 4 all-star women to succeed and I'm confident they are going to CRUSH IT . The first one began her new position yesterday at PACIFIC CAPITAL.
