Dear [FIRST NAME GOES HERE],

- Working MORE hours
- Taking on MORE projects
- Saying YES to MORE opportunities
- Drowning in endless Zoom calls
- Living inside your calendar
- Never taking a weekend off work

The harsh reality is...

Most entrepreneurs are doing WAY too much.

And if you're like most ambitious entrepreneurs...

You're probably the same.

The "hustle" culture made you believe that grinding longer hours = more success.

(Spoiler alert: It doesn't.)

In fact...

If you're stuck at 7-figures and can't break through...

It's probably because you're stretched so thin, you feel like a rubber band about to snap.

Here's the thing...

The more you "hustle":

The LESS effective you become at what truly matters.

What TRULY matters?

Staying focused on the ONE thing that drives real results for both your clients and your team.

Something you can only do by FULLY leveraging your SUPERPOWER.

No matter how "smart," "talented," or "driven" you think you are...

The reality is that 99% of entrepreneurs excel at ONE or TWO things, at most.

That's it.

That's your SUPERPOWER.

That's the #1 reason your clients hire you.

Everything else?

It's just noise that's holding you back and keeping your business small.

Want to know how top entrepreneurs scale to 8 and 9 figures?

I just dropped a Forbes article about this exact topic.

I break down the 5 steps every ambitious entrepreneur should follow to build REAL momentum.

I also talk about:

- How to identify your TRUE superpower
- The "ruthless prioritization" framework
- Why time blocking is non-negotiable
- How to protect your calendar like a bouncer
- The magic of creating a "never doing this again" list

Plus...

I go into more detail about why working HARDER/LONGER hours is not the answer.

(You're not going to outrun your never-ending to-do lists)

What you NEED is a crystal clear focus on what moves the needle.

The courage to DELETE everything else from your list.

Most entrepreneurs are working themselves into an early grave, trying to be everything to everyone.

There's a better way.

One that lets you scale WITHOUT sacrificing your life.

To your focused success,

Chad

Want to know why most 7-figure entrepreneurs can't break through to 8? I just broke this down (plus the solution) on the Money Tree Investing podcast. Hint: It's NOT about working harder - it's about knowing your financial blind spots.

P.S. If you're an entrepreneur with $10M or more in liquidity and want to make your money work even harder for you, set up a call with my team, and let's explore new ways to make that happen.
